This would effectively be a cold call, so I'll ask martha j not to contact him.

Thanks for the quick responses.

The Intuit agreement is only that we do not call the people we meet. However, we are at a critical stage in this deal so I would prefer to not call this person since he is so senior unless he has expressed interest as Shona says below.

Arnon - did we add Intuit to the list?
 slb

Mario- I believe we recently added Intuit to the list at Sheryl's request (Arnon pls confirm). It is not a "do not solicit" though, it is a do not cold call in. So if the candidate has expressed interest in looking for other jobs (to us, or to third parties) it is okay for us to approach.

 [REDACTED] Is he on the Intuit "do not solicit" list?

Martha J. will contact him if it is OK to do so.

Thanks,

mario

Jonathan, Martha Josephson brought forward a potential candidate from Intuit for the IS-PM director job. I told her that I thought we should not talk to anyone at Intuit given Bill Campbell's relationship with Google and his position at Intuit.

We should keep our hands off, right?
